Guidepost Solutions Acquires The OSO Group, Expands in U.S. and Globally

OSO CEO John Gibbons Joins Guidepost Leadership Team

New York, NY – March 4, 2011 – Guidepost Solutions LLC announced today that it has acquired The OSO Group, Ltd., an international investigations, security and compliance consultancy based in San Francisco. The acquisition expands and strengthens Guidepost's global presence and provides its clients with an extended set of services and solutions in addition to the expertise of a recognized executive leader in international investigations.

“This is a strategic acquisition that enhances our ability to meet the needs of our growing client base and enables us to reach into new markets in the U.S, Asia and the Pacific Rim,” said Andrew O’Connell, CEO of Guidepost Solutions. “The addition of OSO Group's CEO, and former federal prosecutor John Gibbons to our leadership team means we can provide our clients with even deeper insights and solutions to help them operate securely and with confidence.”

The OSO Group brings a successful track record of over twenty years of experience in a diverse array of services including: intelligence and counterintelligence operations, litigation support, counterterrorism protection, compliance, workplace violence and strategic business planning, as well as counterespionage programs and anti-counterfeiting operations.

The OSO Group serves clients in San Francisco and the Silicon Valley business community along with others in California, throughout the U.S., and in Asia, including China, Hong Kong, Japan, Thailand and the Philippines. The OSO Group will operate under the Guidepost Solutions name. The acquisition will also provide an extended platform for the growth of Guidepost's security technology design and consulting services. Terms of the acquisition were not disclosed.

The OSO Group was founded by John Gibbons, a recognized leader in the field of international investigations. He worked for 13 years with the Department of Justice as Chief of the Criminal Division for both the Northern and Eastern Districts of California and Deputy Chief of the Organized Crime and Racketeering Strike Force, Los Angeles. During his tenure, Mr. Gibbons supervised and tried the prosecution and investigation of many significant high profile cases, including several internationally recognized espionage and terrorist matters, multinational corporate espionage cases, and many significant multinational white collar prosecutions. Following his departure from the DOJ, Mr. Gibbons served as a Senior Managing Director of Kroll Associates and opened their first offices outside of New York in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Hong Kong. In 1991, Mr. Gibbons formed The OSO Group as the first commercial counterespionage group established in the private sector.
